Good Work Being-Done By Philippine

REPORT MADE BY COL, EDWARDS

Colonies

He Says These Islands Will Make a Most Interesting Showing at the St. Louis Exposition.

Washington, Special.-The develop- steel. ment of the Philippine Islands during the past year, together with a review of pending questions of importance in relation to the archipelago, is contained in the annual report of Colonel Clarence R. Edwards, chief of the Department, made public Sunday. The the dead. accomplishment of greatest importance to the islands during the year has been the successful launching of the new new system will be in complete operation. The new circulating medium consists of 18,000,000 pesos and fractional silver coins and 10,000,000 pesos in paper money. To establish the new system and purchase the silver for coinage issues of bonds were made of $3,000,000 each, both of which were sold at a premium. The proceeds of the sale of these bonds were deposited and drew interest at the rate of 31/2 per cent, so that the government actually made money by going into debt.

Colonel Edwards emphasizes the necessity of a reduction of the Dingley tariff rates for the encouragement of trade between the United States and the Philippines. There is an active desire on the part of Philippine commercial interests, he says, for tariff concessions, and the report states that the same desire also has been evinced by the same interests in this country. The chief exports of the islands to the United States are sugar, tobacco, hemp and coffee. The latter two commodities already are on the free list.

The education of Filipino youths in the country for the purpose of making them the future teachers of the native schools of the islands has begun under an act passed last summer by the incountry for that purpose. They will aitend the grammar schools of southern California during the winter and in the spring be distributed through the United States for further instruction.

olonel Edwards optimistically predicts that the Philippine exhibit at the St. Louis Exposition will be the feature of that show. There are to be something like 1,200 Filipino participants, and every phase of native industry and domestic life in the islands is to be represented.

The House Thursday, by a rising vote of 335 to 21, passed the bill to make effective the Cuban reciprocity EAR GRAFTED ON MILLIONAIRE. treaty. The dissenting votes were about equally divided between Republicans and Democrats, but there was no record vote, the minority having too few votes to order the yeas and nays. the Democratic side when he entertained the appeal from his ruling, made by Mr. Williams, the Speaker saying he preferred to err, if he erred at all, in giving the House the right to express its will. The appeal was tabled by a strict party vote.

In the Senate,

The Senate held its longest sitting of the session Friday, beginning at noon and concluding at 3:15 p. m. The entire time was consumed in debating a motion to defer the Cuban reciprocity bill to the committee on foreign relations. The political line was sharply drawn in the discussion, the Republicans advocating such reference, and the Democrats contending that the measure should go to the committee on finance. The motion prevailed with out division.

The debate served to bring out some incidental references to the merits of the bill and while it was in progress the ear. Mr. Teller took occasion to correct published reports that he has hope of defeating the bill or that he intends to unduly obstruct its consideration.

Messrs. Allison and Aldrich announced their willingness to have the bill go to the foreign relations committee. But they united in an expres ence of revenue bills in the future. Mr. Allison denied that there was a purpose of revising the tarff by reciprocity treaties.

Messrs, Bacon, of Georgia; Bailey, of Texas, and Money, of Mississippi, on the Democratic side, advocated the reference of the bill to the committee

Mr. Bailey said that there was quite a probability of all tariff legislation being accomplished by reciprocity treaties and it became important that the finance committee should control the pending bill.

Mr. Bacon said this was not an isolated case and for that reason was important. It was a question, he said, that would largely relate to the auture action of Congress. Mr. Bacon said that as a member of the committee on foreign relations he had been the author of the provision requiring the "approval of Congress" on the treaty, but he said he had not believed the language to be correctly used. On absurd to suppose that Congress could approve a treaty.

A Hollow Rail.

A hollow rail has just been invented ow in use is 51/2 inches high with 51/2 inch base, and is solid. Mr. Allen-6-inch base, and is hollow. There is also a device for connecting these rails which takes the place of the familiar fish-plate. It consists of a plate 2 feet long and 6 inches wide. and carrying an upright the length of plate, which fits into the hollow of the rails to complete the connection. It is asserted that the danger of spread. ants of Cleveland were born in Europe. ing rails will be greatly minimized. The present standard rail carries 90 bounds to the yard, while that of Mr. Allendorph is only 77. At $28 a ton for rails this would mean a saving of 5517.76 per mile.

CORN STALKS ON ROADS.

Corn stalks from which the blades have been eaten make excellent material in the lanes and roads leading to the barn. They prevent the accumufine during the winter by stock, when they then may be hauled to the barnyard and used as absorbent material.

INFLUENCES POTATO YIELD.

The size of the seed for potatoes influences the yield. In England whole potatoes are used almost in every section, and successful growers in this country use seed potatoes cut in half, never cutting to smaller sizes. Deep plowing, deep planting and level culture give better results than hilling. A single plant in a place gives the largest tubers, but not so many as when two or more plants are together.

CAUSE OF ROPY MILK.

Farmers who consider $300 too high for a fourteen-pound butter cow should remember that no outlay is too great, provided the returns therefrom are satisfactory. There is a great difference in the price of a pure bred Jersey and a common cow, but there is also a wide difference in the butter produced. A cow is valuable only according to what she produces and the cost. One cow producing fourteen pounds of butter is more profitable than two cows producing seven pounds each, because she requires less room and also entails less expense for food and labor, thus producing butter at a lower cost per

TO KEEP HONEY.

To keep honey all the year round without candying it is only necessary to place the honey which has previously been nicely strained in a pan or pail which may be placed inside of that the electrically made steel is not | another one, putting two or three bits of wood under the pall containing the honey, to prevent it from burning upon the bottom, then fill the outer one with water and just bring to the boiling point, skimming off the wax and all foam which gathers upon the top. As it comes to the boiling point, remove from the stove, and after a few minutes skim and pour into jars to cool. Cover tightly-and keep in a cool place.-E. L. Morris.

RAISING TURKEYS.

Turkey raising has become almost a distinct branch of the poultry industry, and requires a location very different from that needed for chickens. geese or ducks. Turkeys, while thoroughly domesticated, still retain that natural disposition to roam, and for this reason it is impossible to succeed with them in small lots. They must have range, even when being prepared for market, and when this is given them they are but little more trouble than other kinds of poultry.

Bronze turkeys are the largest of all breeds, and perhaps the most generally bred, but there are several other favorites that are doubtless equally good. The turkey does best in warm climates, and it is somewhat surprising that more farmers do not have flocks of them.

VALUE OF HAY CROP.

The hay crop of this country is more important to farmers than wheat, as hay may be baled and sent to market or be used on the farm; but one reason why hay should not be sold is because it contains more of the mineral elements than does grain. More profit is made from hay than from any other staple crop, as it is the main reliance for winter feeding, while the manure from hay contains plant food that is more evenly balanced than that from any other source. To derive the most benefit from hay, however, is to feed it in connection with less valuable bulky food, using bran or linseed meal to make the ration better and more acceptable, and especially should this course be pursued when there has been a short hay crop.

IMPORTANCE OF GOOD SEED.

The importance of good seed cannot be too strongly urged. A grower of wheat in several years' experiments found that it paid well to hand-pick his seed wheat. The first year he planted seven and one-half pounds of hand-picked wheat on one acre, in rows eighteen inches apart, and at harvest he threshed out sixty-seven bushels. The next year the yield was seventy-two bushels, using a little more seed. On a trial row he planted seventy-six extra fine kernels of seed (weighing forty-five grains), and the product was ten and one-fourth pounds or at the rate of 100 bushels of wheat per acre. The experiments were made many years ago by Professor Blount, of the Colorado Experiment Station, the seed being in rows eighteen inches apart, and twelve inches apart in the rows, a wheel hoe being used for cultivating between the rows. In Belgium all seeds are carefully hand-picked and the wheat crop cultivated, with the result that from sixty to seventy-five bushels of wheat per acre may be found on nearly all farms.

Mrs. Anderson, a prominent society woman of Jacksonville, Fla., daughter of Recorder of Deeds, West, who witnessed her signature to the following letter, praises Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: - There are but few wives and mothers who have not at times endured agonies and such pain as only women know. I wish such women knew the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It is a remarkable medicine, different in action from any I ever knew and thoroughly reliable.

"I have seen cases where women doctored for years without permanent benefit, who were cured in less than three months after taking your Vegetable Compound, while others who were chronic and incurable came out cured, harpy, and in perfect health after a thorough treatment with this medicine. I have never used it myself without gaining great benefit. A few doses restores my strength and appetite, and tones up the entire system. Your medicine has been tried and found true, hence I fully endorse it."—Mrs. R. A. Anderson, 225 Washington St., Jacksonville, Fla.

Mrs. Reed, 2425 E. Cumberland St., Philadelphia, Pa., says: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: - I feel it my duty to write and tell you the good I have received from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Com> pound. "I have been a great sufferer with female trouble, trying different doctors and medicines with no benefit. Two years ago I went under an operation, and it left me in a very weak condition. I had stomach trouble, backache, headache, palpitation of the heart, and was very nervous; in fact, I ached all over. I find yours is the only medicine that reaches such troubles, and would cheerfully recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all suffering women." When women are troubled with irregular or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhœa, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, flatulence, general debility, indigestion, and nervous prostration, they should remember there is one tried Raised Objections.

Because Mr. Charles T. Yerkers brought German bricklayers to London to put up two tall chimney stacks at his new generating station in Chelsea local labor unions are saying some very bitter things about American enerprise, Mr. Yarker's manager explained, apologetically, that British bricklayers were not accustomed to building chimneys from the inside; hence the alien workmen. Mr. Yerkes is now being deluged with letters from all parts of the United Kingdom, giving lists of chimneys "inside-built." which are solely the product of British labor. The manager, newly arrived from Chicago, spoke not wisely but too well, and the local contractors, having scored a point, are crowing with delight. Meantime the German bricklayers are having an unpleasant time in Chelsea. So. 47.

The Portland (Me.) Press observes An interesting scrap of information comes from Washington to the effect that the Agricultural Department proposes to test the merits of the South American plant known as "cupatorium re bandenum," for sugar making. Not to know cupatorium may be to argue oneself ignorant, but the name looks fishy. It is possible, however, that the plant is destined to beat the beet and raise Cain with cane.
